1. Policy for Grievance Redressal

1.1 Objective

The objective of the Grievance Redressal policy of the IDFC Bank is to ensure that:

- IDFC Bank treats all its customers fairly and equally without any bias -irrespective of caste, creed, race, gender, special abilities - on all occasions
- The resolution of grievances is within defined Turn Around Time (TAT)
- The resolution process is accelerated with proactive interventions by the Complaints Management Committee to cause nil distress to the customers
- Customers are made completely aware of their rights such that they can opt for alternative remedial channels if they are not satisfied with our response or resolution of their complaint/s
- The Bank shall endeavor to make continuous efforts to educate its customers to enable them to make informed choices regarding banking products and reduce errors in banking transactions.

1.2 Principles of grievance Redressal:

The guiding principles of our bank's grievance Redressal policy are in line with our Six Service Themes as follows:

- i. Anytime, Anywhere: Our customers will be provided with information on how to raise their grievances or concerns at all key touch points including but not limited to – Branch, Contact Centre, Website, Mobile Banking, SMS Banking and other digital channels.
- ii. Simple: The process to raise a complaint / escalation / grievance would involve only relevant investigative questions without any kind of hassle to the customer to share irrelevant details.
- iii. Quick and Consistent: Resolutions would follow this simple principle of ensuring an efficient resolution. The responses would be consistent and in line with BCSBI and RBI guideline at all times as applicable. Our aim is to reduce customer anxiety by ensuring we remain quick and consistent at all times.
- iv. First Time Right (FTR): Our goal would be to provide any piece of information or process any request received from the customer as an FTR. With proactive interventions at all levels of a grievance being raised and otherwise, we would aim to address an interaction with the bank as FTR.
- v. Thoughtful: As a bank, we remain aligned to our core service theme – ‘We serve and therefore we are’. Our approach to handling any grievance remains embedded in this belief and as such we would offer solutions to the customers thoughtfully reflecting back on the string of events and improvising our processes on an ongoing basis wherever needed.
- vi. Personal: Our aim to address a grievance in this regard would mean a) It transparently involves customer in resolution process as needed, b) Enhances customer experience and, c) Makes information more relevant and meaningful for the customer in resolving concerns.

1.3 Registration of complaints:

The Bank enables its customers' to register complaints through multiple channels. The various channels available to customers are as follows:

- Customer Care: Customers can contact our 24x7, 365 days a year via our Banker on Call services over the phone or email for redressal of issues. Respective Contact Numbers for Business Lines and their email ids are available on the website under ‘Connect With Us’ Section -> ‘Get in Touch’.
